

Rural House "Las Chozas de Joaquín"

Between a sea of olive trees and a beautiful rural environment in the heart of Andalusia, within the natural park of the Sierras Subbéticas, is the rural house Las Chozas de Joaquín. This old completely renovated farmhouse is located just 3km from the town of Almedinilla (Córdoba).

The cortijo has two apartments of 90 m², totally independent from each other located on two floors and offering a maximum capacity for 12 people (3 double rooms per apartment). Each apartment has a fully furnished living-dining room, equipped kitchen with views on the lower level, full bathroom and terrace with furniture and barbecue.

The apartments share outdoor parking, a pool, lighting system, automatic cleaning and garden-terrace solarium.