

(Fuente Tójar) Los Barrancos

Starting point: Fuente-Tójar Townhall

End: Todosaires Village

Length: 6.4 km, lineal

Time: 4 hours

Difficulty: Low

The route starts at the town hall. The itinerary, within the so called Priego-Alcaudete depression, includes the visit to landscapes of stunning natural beauty and full of history.

Once we are positioned at the departure point the route follows through the Las Seras Street until we find a path, located on the right hand side, where we will see indications regarding this route. On the way we will pass by enclaves of great archaeological interest, such as "La Cortijada de la Cubertilla" farm house.

Once we have reached this point the path descends to the valley of the Caicena river, an affluent of the San Juan river, which together with El Saldado will give place to the Guadajoz river, the roman Salsum.

The route ends in Todosaires, a set of more or less dispersed cortijo farm houses, many of which are abandoned and in ruins, to which a road arrives, which are abandoned and in ruins, to which a road arrives, which are abandoned and in ruins, to which a road arrives, which departs from Fuente-Tójar (CO-7203) built over a cattle road, the route of the path from Las Pozuelas to Todosaires village.
