

MERCADO DE ABASTOS

The market opened its doors in 1965 with a slaughterhouse in its semi-basement. In the following years, the stalls fell into disuse in favour of modern shops and supermarkets, and the slaughterhouse became a warehouse for municipal departments. At present, few stalls are occupied: a shop, a churro-fishmonger's, a chicken-roaster's shop.

Open in the mornings from Monday to Sunday