

"Caminos de Pasión" Route

Caminos de Pasión is a touristic and cultural route that will discover you the historical heritage, gastronomy and traditions from the heart of Andalucía.

The eight cities that form this route are symbolic for their historic and patrimonial wealth: Alcalá in Jaén; Baena, Cabra, Lucena, Priego de Córdoba y Puente Genil in Córdoba; Carmona and Osuna in Sevilla.

We propose a tour of five paths that will make you know in an intense and different way:

- Culture paths: discover the authentic cultural heritage, the palaces, beautiful churches... A travel through the history of each places.
- Senses paths: delight your senses with extraordinary wines, virgin olive oils, and other local products based on our Andalusian and Mediterranean legacy.
- Emotion paths: live the feeling of a unique Easter, a religious, social and cultural event that expressed itself as an expression of emotions in spring. A tour through the different religious manifestations.

- Tradition paths: You can enjoy a party atmosphere in happy festivities, fairs and pilgrimages with more roots where folklore and flamenco find their purest and most genuine expression.

- Paths of the authentic: know an extensive number of craftsmen whose creations have the value of the long tradition and the quality that precedes them, artisan manufactures have been maintained over time.
