

Tempranillo's Route

This route which starts from the lucentina village of Jauja, near the river "Genil", it will take us to meet the places where the most famous Andalusian bandit was born and lived. The route covers the places that marked the existence of this romantic character visiting three Andalusian provinces: Córdoba, Sevilla and Málaga framed in a beautiful natural environment.