

Zambra

On the road to Lucena is the village of Zambra, divided in two almost disconnected parts. The most important one can be accessed by a road that deviates to the left of the one that leads to Rute. Duque Street is a true artery of Zambra, and at its very end stands the Church of Ntra. Sra. de Gracia. Next to the Church, in the Plaza Teniente Castro is the Fuente del Pueblo.

